I PREAMBLE

Camps Bay High School is committed to protecting all persons' privacy and recognises that it needs to comply with statutory requirements whenever it collects, processes and distributes personal information. South Africa has enshrined the right to privacy within the South African Bill of Rights (the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 108 of 1996) and has given effect to that right through the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPI). The purpose of POPI is to therefore give effect to everyone's right to privacy as enshrined; to facilitate the balance between the right to privacy with other rights, such as the right to access information and to safeguard important interests such as the free flow of information within the Republic and across international borders. Camps Bay High School is committed to protecting the privacy of our learners, employees, and partners, in line with POPI and related South African legislation, including , the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000, global leading practices, and our commitment to good established governance.

Camps Bay High School is established, mandated and governed by the South African Schools Act 84 of 1996 and the Constitution of the Governing Body of Camps Bay High School and relevant policies.
